

Optum Not on Bill of Fare.
Lan Tung, who has a restaurant at No. 43 Sands Street, Brooklyn, was arrested by Federal agents and local detectives last night, charged with smuggling opium. They say they found opium worth $1,000 in the place. Detectives are guarding a safe which they believe contains more of the drug.

FATHER FARRELL MAY REST EASY, SAYS MAYOR

No Investigation by City Government, Even if Priest's Telephone Wires Were Tapped.

"It may disturb Father Farrell very much to think somebody is investigating his past life," said Mayor Mitchell today, "but he can at least rest assured that the investigating is not being done by the city government of New York."

The Mayor's comment was on remarks credited to Rev. William B. Farrell, rector of St. Peter and Paul Roman Catholic Church, during an address he delivered to the New York City Chapter of the Alumni of St. Mary's College of Emmetsburg, Maryland, during a banquet at the Hotel McAlpin.

Father Farrell was referring to the tapping of his telephone wires by members of the Police Department, one of the results of the charities investigation feud.

"I learn at this moment," said the priest, "that, not having succeeded in making a public fool of me and not having succeeded in getting enough of me over the telephone, the Mayor of this city is trying to go about and find if there is something in my life that is wrong, and in a few days you may learn more of me."

Original Home Dressmaking Designs By The Evening World's Fashion Expert

Woman's Defiance of Age and Becomingness of Youthful Styles, Despite the Wearer's Years, Depend Upon Her Interest and Activity in Other Lines.

Copyright, 1916, by The Evening World.

Girls used to be considered women at fifteen, and married; middle-aged at thirty, elderly at forty, old at fifty, and then mere withering grandmothers. All this is changed and is still changing. Women as they become real people, with a wider range of interests and activities, keep right on living and enjoying life no matter what their age. They no longer relinquish their alluring, frivolous and dainty apparel at the age when they used to feel they were getting matronly and old.

I am showing to-day an adorable summer frock suitable for women of an age anywhere from twenty to forty

EXPERT ADVICE FREE TO HOME DRESSMAKERS

If you are in doubt about what styles or colors become you; if the making or remodeling of a gown perplexes you; if you are uncertain as to when and where to wear your clothes, Miss Lode-wick will advise you. Address communications to Fashion Editor, New York Evening World.

years. At the right is depicted a modish combination of white organdy and changeable mustard and blue taffeta. The bodice cuts almost straight across in front, but is more generous to the neck in back, cutting to becoming V. Pointed tabs of fine lace lend a soft finish, and the sleeves, recognizing their trimming qualities, adopt them as dainty top pieces to their wide silk sleeve bands. With only two cordings to confine the skirt at the waistline, it billows gayly forth into many rippling frills, only to be sternly halted near the bottom by a wide band of the silk. The model at the left suggests the use of dotted muslin for this little afternoon frock. In any pale color, its sleeve and skirt band would be pretty of lace, with either silk or satin pointed trimming pieces to lend it distinction.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Dear Fashion Editor:

My daughter, fifteen years old, is very slight and thin, and her clothes, which are bought ready made, appear to "hang" on her. I want to make her an evening and party dress and appeal to you for suggestions. Will you please tell me of a design which will make her appear not so thin?

MRS. B. R.

Point d'esprit made according to sketch will be pretty for summer. A colored silk sash with two wide loops at the back and no ends. The same color silk should edge the tunic.

Dear Fashion Editor:

I am five feet eleven inches in height, weigh 165 pounds and am nineteen years old, though I am always taken for twenty-five. Have auburn hair, brown eyes, fair skin; would a light gray dress become me? What colors do you think I should wear, and how have my clothes made so as not to make me look so tall?

Yes, light gray should be one of your most becoming colors. Brown in a shade blending with your hair, dull green, bright blue, pale pink and pale lavender are also becoming. Avoid lengthwise lines, both in cut and trimming in your clothes. Broad collars, instead of narrow, long ones, if your waist is normally long; wide girdles which drop over the hips, wide band through the skirt are helpful effects. Plaid and figured materials will detract from your height, but may make you appear larger.

Dear Fashion Editor:

Will you suggest an afternoon dress for a woman forty years old. I prefer charmeuse, but what color, do? Slight gray hair, hazel eyes and pale skin. Dard red charmeuse combined with chiffon made according to suggestion for E. T. will be pretty.
